THE STEEL DISTRICT,

a growing development in Sioux Falls, South Dakota is home to three, new Shea-designed restaurants. Each restaurant is completely unique with their own vibe and brand identity, as well as furniture and décor packages by SheaMakes.

IRONWOOD STEAKHOUSE

THE STEEL DISTRICT

THE VIBE

A contemporary steakhouse overlooking Falls Park and the Big Sioux River

THE RESULT

Modern-industrial finishes and a timeless, simplistic style that allows the park-side views to be the star of the design

THE HIGHLIGHTS:

- Floor-to-ceiling windows framing the natural beauty of Falls Park right outside
- A gallery wall of framed photos and décor showcasing the history of Sioux Falls
- Weathered barrels above the backbar, one of the custom displays produced by the SheaMakes team
- Varied mix of seating including a nook of booths with unique, curved structure overhead

DAHLIA KITCHEN + BAR

THE VIBE

A vibrant Mexican restaurant that evokes an exciting yet approachable energy

THE RESULT

An innovative blend of finishes and design that pairs industrial backdrops with luxe finishes, bold colors, patterns, textures and dramatic structures

THE HIGHLIGHTS:

- Double-arched ceiling structure with one long arch over the inside of the bar and the other running overhead diners on the other side of the counter
- Wallcovering in a custom designed geometric pattern with a sketch-like texture
- A metal-wire, tequila-tree sculpture with lit tequila bottles held by its branches
- Intricate brickwork creating arched seating nooks and bringing warmth into the restaurant

BIG SIOUX BURGER

THE STEEL DISTRICT

THE VIBE

A welcoming burger joint with a dive-bar edge in the heart of the Steel District

THE RESULT

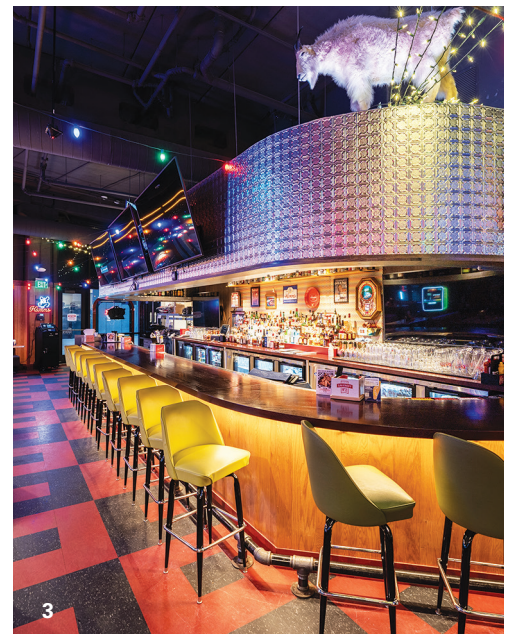

Neon lights, retro décor and walls covered in either massive windows or wood paneling creating a buzz within the dynamic, mixed-use neighborhood

THE HIGHLIGHTS:

- Bold red-and-black patterned flooring, with an old-school style, spanning the restaurant
- Full-sized, taxidermy goat and turkey perched on the soffit overlooking the bar below
- Playful collections of vintage beer signs, artwork and décor displayed across the walls
- Blend of antique, stained-glass pendant lights and billiard-style fixtures with neon and colorful, holiday-style string lights

EGG ON A ROLL

THE VIBE

A specialty egg sandwich concept with a playful brand attitude from local chef and entrepreneur Adam Bresina

THE RESULT

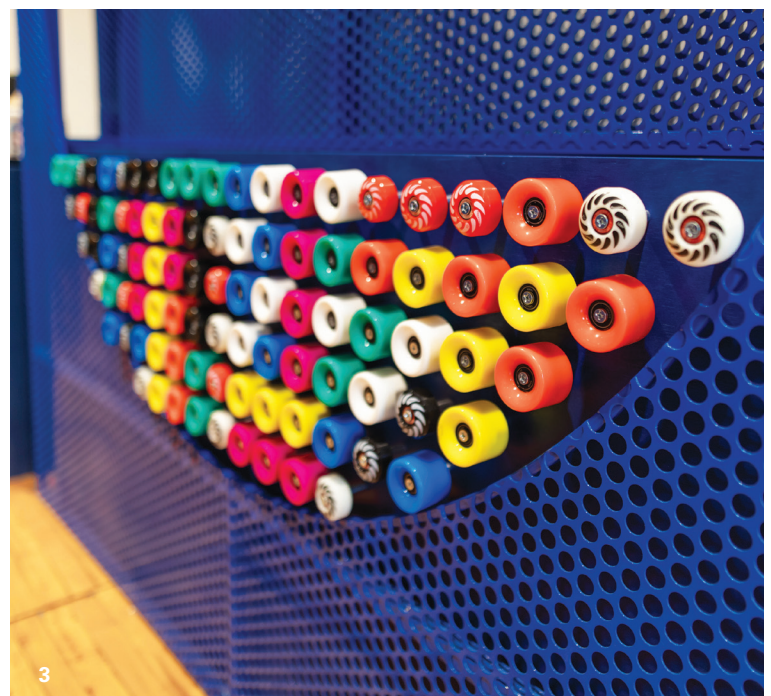

A prototype design implemented at multiple, standalone locations – a major step for the concept started from a counter space inside of a market

THE HIGHLIGHTS:

- A bold design for their bold brand: pops of blue, colorful art, checkerboard prints
- Custom-designed, digital mural printed onto smooth FRP backing the prep area
- Skateboard wheels and details nodding to their “rolling start” tagline
- Immersive design with brand elements that can be effectively replicated in growing markets

Tulibee Tavern The latest gathering spot from brothers Rob and Steve Dubbs in Wahkon, MN, Tulibee Tavern draws on its lake area location with every detail intended to feel playful and connect to the community. Eclectic décor and murals not only fill the inside, but even the rooftop (see inset) was not left untouched thanks to our Shea design and SheaMakes production teams. We look forward to sharing a complete look at Tulibee Tavern in our next issue of Shea Ink!
